

Coppell Youth Soccer Association Parent's Code of Conduct

As a CYSA Parent, I will:

- 1) learn the rules of the game;
- 2) will let the coach be the coach;
- 3) will be a good sport - teach by example;
- 4) stay on my side of the field and five feet off the sidelines;
- 5) cheer positively;
- 6) NEVER yell at the coach;
- 7) NEVER yell at the referee;
- 8) NEVER instruct my child to break the rules deliberately;
- 9) teach my child to be respectful of the officials;
- 10) teach my child to play the game that is called;
- 11) not interfere with the linesmen;
- 12) let the coach handle situations that arise;
- 13) realize that the officials are human;
- 14) thank those officials who do a good job; and
- 15) get involved.
